Richmond won with greatest case the first game. #### The Second Game.

The second game was a most interesting one in every particular. Good ball was played, and there was abundant excite ment, giving the cranks great opportuni-ties for vigorous rooting, of which then ties for vigorous rooting, of which they availed themselves nobly. Every available inch of seating capacity in the large park was occupied, and everybody present wore a happy smile.

ent wore a happy smile.

The game was one of those scrappy contests full of good plays and live work, with here and there a little kicking and much comedy to add zest to it. Richmond had decidedly the best of it, but Norfolk, too, was strictly in it. Um-pire Hayden was in to finger the indicator, and he officiated in a most impartial manner, giving entire satisfaction to everybedy save the Norfolk players, who seemed to take especial delight in wor-

UMPIRE HAD NO RECOURSE. This conduct on their part, while partially amusing, was also somewhat tire-some, but it seems to be approved of by the management of the team, and of course the umpire had but little recourse. Early in the contest Snyder and Mc-Farlan made themselves somewhat obnexious, and it was only through the in-terference of 'Squire Donati that they terference of 'Squire Donati that they were gotten back into harness. Then, later on in the game, McFarlan created more disorder, and was ordered from the grounds. He refused to go, whereupon

LEEVER WAS THE STAR.

The game, aside from these reprehensible antics, was well worth seeing. Norfolk had Bishop in to do the twirling, and in the very first inning the locals smashed out five hits, scoring with lit-tle difficulty three runs. Stimmell went in to pitch for Richmond, and was doing excellent work until in the second inning, when he went up to bat, the ball struck him on his finger, and necessitated his retirement from the game.

Leever was then substituted, and from the time he entered the box until the game closed the result of the contest game closed the result of the contest was never in doubt, the Professor seeming to start just where he stopped in Priday's contest, and the way he mixed them up proved disastrous to Norfolk, for they did almost nothing with them, and went out frequently in one, two, three order.

COULDN'T TOUCH THE PROFESSOR. The Professor didn't seem to worry himself in pitching, either. He just seemed to roll them over, but the erstwhile heavy hitters couldn't find him, and seven of them fanned the air.

The game progressed slowly, on account of the continued delay occasioned by the kicking indulged in by Norfolk's players, but Leever kept things going while he was in the box, and the game finally ended with Richmond on too

Cupid breaks his bow at the sight of a face full of pimples and blotches. Hollow cheeks, sunken eyes, and a sallow complexion will defy his best intentions. Beauty is more than skin deep. The skin is merely the surface on which is written in plain characters the condition of the body. The skin is not a thing by itself, and skin diseases are frequently not skin diseases at all. All the lotions and bleaches and creams and powders in the world won't make a good complexion if the digestion is wrong. If the stomach is sour, and the liver torpid, and the bowels constipated, the skin will show it. No use trying to treat the skin for such a condition. The only way to relieve it is to cleanse the system and purify the blood. As long as the heart is pumping impurities to every part of the body, just so long these impurities will show through the skin.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is good for the complexion because it makes the whole body healthy—because it clears and purifies the blood, makes the digestion strong and clears out impurities of all kinds. By increasing the ability to assimilate nutritious food, and by the infusion of its own ingredients, it enriches the blood and so makes solid, healthy flesh. It fills out the hollows, rubs out wrinkles and substitutes for sallowness a rosy, healthy glow. There is no mystery about it. It isn't a miracle. It is merely the result of a combination of rational, natural common sense with expert medical knowledge. It cures diseases of the lungs, liver, stomach, bowels, skin and scalp, simply because all these diseases spring from the same cause—a disordered digestion and consequent impure blood. Don't let prejudice and scepticism cheat you out of your health. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will positively cure you, if suffering from diseases named above.

GRAND CIRCUIT MEETING.

NEW YORK, September 6.—Over three thousand spectators were at Fleetwood Park this afternoon to see the big lightharness sport of the Grand Circuit meeting. The weather was good and the track in the pink of condition. Speculation was brisk and heavy. The big event of the day was the 4.000 Manhaitan purse for 2:15 trotters, and the field 455, which really meant Oakland Baron, as the race was conceded to be between the pair. Oakland Baron led all the way, and won in straight heats, in the last one pulling up at the wire a winner by six lengths. Louis Victor was fast, but broke repeatedly.

In the first heat the winner got to the half in 1:31-2 and in the second in 125, Only four met in the 2,000-purse event for 2-year-olds, and Jennie T., a fleet filly by Bow Bells, sold first choice at 55, to 30 for the field, including Marcus Daly's crack coit, Limerick, who won a 3,500 sweepstake at Goshen last week.

Limerick took the lead in the first heat to the half, where he broke, and the favorite won by four lengths. In the second heat the filly broke, and Limerick won so easily, by two lengths, that the betting changed to 200 to 260 on him, but GRAND CIRCUIT MEETING.

broke so badly finally that Jennie Ti came home as she pleased, pulling up.

The fastest race of the day, the 23% class pace, had also a hot favorite in the bay geiding Bumps, who sold at $50 to $3 for the field. Planet drew the pole, but Bumps was so quick on his feet that ne took the pole on the turn and went sating along like a locomotive, getting it the quarter in 201-4 and to the half in 1.901-2, and came home easily, with Sphinxetta a poor second. The pools now sold $25 to $8 on Bumps, and he justified the betting by winning by six lengths in 2.971-2. In this heat Planet broke in the stretch and swerved into Lantana, causing a breakdown, with no serious results, broke so badly finally that Jennie T a breakdown, with no serious results however.
